

STRAYERS LOSE TO BUSINESS HIGH

Stenographers Get Lead and Are Never Headed

Strong hitting in the first two innings enabled Business to defeat Strayers Business College, 8 to 1, yesterday at Georgia avenue and Kenyon street northwest.

Huntman and Dodge were the men who started the strong hitting for the high school team. The latter continued it throughout Levine's stay in the box. Messing, who took the southpaw's place, held the school team safe, allowing them no hit and running nine.

Business showed much more teamwork and better all-around playing than was exhibited in the opening game Saturday, and continuing at the pace of yesterday, they should be a strong contender in the coming high school series.

Strayers played well after the fourth inning and made a strong attempt to come back, but they were unable to overcome the classy teamwork of their opponents. Score:

POOL TOURNAMENT ENDED.

Spless and Polglase Defeated at Lamb's Club.

The pool tournament in the special class arranged by the management of the Lamb's Athletic Club, between Messrs. Spless, Cole, Cohen, Polglase, De Rosa, and Rouse, was terminated on Wednesday evening by the defeat of Spless by

Left on base: Business, 1; Strayers, 3. First base on balls: Business, 5; Strayers, 1. Struck out: Business, 12; Strayers, 8. Left on base: Business, 4; Strayers, 3.

The management is arranging for another special tournament between the members of the club, the details of which will be announced at an early date.

GLOOM PREVAILS AT CENTRAL HIGH

"O" Streeters Lose Three Star Ball Games.

The board of high school faculty advisers have put a deep gloom over Central high school. At a special meeting of the board on Wednesday, "O" Streeters were defeated by the "A" Streeters, 3 to 1, in a game which was held at the school grounds. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games. The "O" Streeters, who had been undefeated in their first three games, were defeated by the "A" Streeters, who had been defeated in their first three games.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE

Says Grantland Rice in the New York Mail: Walter Johnson, the Idaho wonder, is still out of the Washington fold. Johnson wants $5,000 for his stuff this season, while owner Noyes can only see $1,000 worth of it visible to the naked eye. The argument between the pair grew so warm last week that it set fire to the grand stand and left only a field of ashes in its place. There is consolation, however. If Noyes should lose Johnson he wouldn't need his grand stand, which may cheer up the owner a bit, any way.

OZANA CAPTURES MONCRIEF STAKES

Rank Outsider Takes Fifth Race at Jacksonville.

Jacksonville, March 22.—It was the race of the hour for the sportsmen to-day at Moncrief Park, though the attendance kept up wonderfully. The card was not a particularly good one, but as three favorites, two second choices, and an outsider won, the public had little to complain about.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

In the third race, a selling purse, at one mile and twenty yards, Hilltop was sent to the post at even money, but the best he could do was to finish third. The race went to Duke of Devonshire, backed from 2 to 1 to 1.50. In this race Hilltop was left at the post, and Helene, who finished second, made all the running, with Duke of Devonshire and also as his closest attendant. A excellent out horse looked the winner, but Duke of Devonshire was not to be denied and was going away at the end.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

The feature of the afternoon's sport was the Moncrief Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and this went to Ozana, a colt by the Duke of Devonshire, bred by the Duke of Devonshire, and owned by the Duke of Devonshire. Ozana beat Tom Hartwood by a neck in a driving finish. He beat Turner was a bang-on third, and the favorite, Concho, was out of the money.

BOWIE ATTACKS A. A. U. OFFICIALS

Declares Suspension of J. B. Hihn Unjust.

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Md., March 22.—Declaring that the membership committee, the registration committee, and the officials in general were lax in carrying out the duties incumbent upon them, Maj. Washington Bowie, Jr., attacked the methods used in the South Atlantic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union at a meeting of the board of governors to-night. He made pretty plain his belief that the suspension of J. B. Hihn, of the Fifth Regiment A. A. U., was illegal, and after a short but heated discussion, the board voted to refer the matter to the national body for consideration.

The fight between Maj. Bowie and the other faction, headed by James A. O'Shea, of the Catholic University of Washington, and Joseph T. England, came to a climax in the case of J. B. Hihn. The former contended that the registration committee had not taken testimony of witnesses other than Royce Thompson, and said that the stories of ex-catholics would change the complexion of matters if they had been permitted to come up.

Bowie's strenuous objection to this lax manner served to temporarily postpone the Frederick Y. M. C. A. of the Hamilton County Club, and the Washington Cross Country Club from becoming members of the S. A. A. through slight technicalities.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

The selection of three members of the registration committee was contrary to expectations, but through without much difficulty, W. G. Stuart of Washington was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place. Mr. Stuart, of Washington, was chosen in Mr. Retalianski's place.

BIG FORCE BUSY

New National Park Foundations Already Laid.

With one of the largest forces of men ever put on a similar job in Washington during the year, the National Park Service is every indication that the work will be completed on schedule time and that the National will be able to open here as scheduled.

Boxes for the lower forms on which the grand stand will be built were sunk yesterday and late last night this feature of the work was completed. Work on the main body of the stands will be started to-day.

New systems for the accommodation of the crowds will be installed in the new park by the officials.

ARMY ORDERS.

The sick leave of absence granted Second Lieut. JACK W. HEARD, Seventh Cavalry, is extended three months.

First Lieut. EDGAR D. CRAFT, Medical Reserve Corps, will report to the commanding officer of the Walter Reed General Hospital, for duty.

Leave of absence for four months is granted Capt. FRANK B. WICK, HAM, Twelfth Infantry, to take effect upon the arrival of his regiment at the United States.

Leave of absence for three months is granted Capt. JAMES A. MANEY, Second Infantry, to Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., to assist in the command of the battalion of his regiment at that post.

Leave of absence for three months is granted Capt. FRANK B. WICK, HAM, Twelfth Infantry, to take effect upon the arrival of his regiment at its station in the United States.

NAVAL ORDERS.

The following orders have been issued: Commander H. M. EATON, retired, to home.

Commander C. P. EATON, retired, to duty as inspector in charge of the Seventh and Eighth lightship districts.

Civil Engineer J. V. ROCKWELL, to duty as navy yard, Charleston, S. C.

Civil Engineer E. K. GAYLER, to duty as navy yard, New York, N. Y.

Assistant Civil Engineer A. BAKER, to duty as navy yard, New York, N. Y.

PRIZES ARE GIVEN TO MILITIAMEN

Presented by Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans.

The prizes earned by members of the National Guard, District of Columbia, for qualification in small arms practice during the season of 1910 and the prizes won in the recent competitions were presented by Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans, C. S. A., in the drill hall of the National Guard Armory, last night.

Brig. Gen. Evans, in his address, said the time is at hand when the forces of the United States should no longer be known as militia, but as soldiers, sailors, and marines. He said that the military establishment of the United States should be known as the United States Army.

The successful teams and individual winners of trophies and prizes were announced by Brig. Gen. Evans. The prizes were presented to the winners by Brig. Gen. Evans. The prizes were presented to the winners by Brig. Gen. Evans.

The prizes were presented to the winners by Brig. Gen. Evans. The prizes were presented to the winners by Brig. Gen. Evans. The prizes were presented to the winners by Brig. Gen. Evans.

REPORT OF RECEIVERS.

Transactions of C. James Rixey Before Alexandria Court.

Alexandria, Va., March 22.—J. K. M. Norton and Howard W. Smith, receivers for the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, which was placed in the hands of receivers December 28 last, filed their report in the Corporation Court to-day.

The report goes into many of the private transactions of C. James Rixey, president of the concern, although the receivers say it is impossible for them, or any one else, to form any estimate of the value of the corporation or other creditors will receive.

A summary of Rix